"I found the assortment of sanding paper in the Bargain Box to be more than I had expected." I.B.-Baltimore, MD

"The Bargain Box was excellent. Your product is great and delivery was too good to be true. Will pass on to friends." R.S.-Longvalley, NJ

"You're the best thing that ever happened to a woodworker. Truly superior products. Thanks." T. Peoples-Louisville, KY

"My Dad and I have ordered your sandpaper bargain boxes for years. We both really like the quality of the sandpaper, and have convinced more than one friend to order from you as well. I love the bargain boxes, because it always seems like I have just the right grit of sandpaper handy when I need it." - Jan, Ypsilanti, MI

Using the Materials in the Bargain Box

So now you have the box, you know what's in it, but how do you use it? Well as we've mentioned, the pieces in the box are all of a good usable size. They can be torn to certain sizes, wrapped around a sanding block, made into strips, folded into "sanding pads", made into discs, or simply cut into whatever shape you might need at the time. As an added bonus, the materials in the Bargain Box can also be used for a variety of other purposes around the home and in the shop. Since they are aluminum oxide products, they can be used on all metal surfaces, pipe, railings, rust removal, etc. making the Bargain Box even more worthwhile.
